Children's Home

Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic

Greetings:

Thank you for your interest in sponsoring an abandoned child. I believe there is no greater good we can do than to invest into the lives of young ones to cultivate basic needs, education and love in a comprehensive way that honors God and benefits society. Jesus said, “Whatsoever you do to the least of these you do to me”. If you would like to know what you can do, please continue reading.

May God bless you with a heart of generosity!

In Christ,

Ken Peters,

Executive Director, Open Arms Outreach

Children's Home

Presently, we rent a house in Villa de Pantoja, Santo Domingo in the Dominican Republic, where orphans, who are literally rescued from the streets, are given food, clothing, shelter, and an education. Pastor Paulino and his wife, Wendy, live in the home and care for the children and their young son. Wendy is providing the children an education since none can be enrolled in public school. Pictures and biographies of the children can be seen on the Website. Donations to underwrite their needs can be given monthly to Open Arms Outreach. For your convenience, you may wish to set up monthly debits from your account which can be done via the Website.

There are different levels of giving that go toward housing, food, clothing, education, medical, and dental for all the children. You may also visit our Website for secure automatic debiting. www.oaoutreach.org/donate.htm
